23 vintages from 1984 thru' to 2011

Fruit for this release comes from very old vineyards in the famed McLaren Vale wine region. Rich, concentrated fruit was handpicked then open fermented before being put to oak to finish fermentation and then matured for 22 months (approximate as wine is still in oak) This wine has great potential and it is expected to mature well over the next 20 years or to personal requirements. It is bottled to maintain freshness on opening. Our recent value pedigree:-

2009 Vintage Futures - made from 70 year old vines on the rich sands of McLaren Vale. The wine has been aged in French and American oak for 21 months and is made under the direction of Nick and James Haselgrove at the Adelaide Winemakers Cellars, Grant Gully Road at Clarendon. One of the wines chosen for the Winemaker of the Year Award to Nick Haselgrove in 2010.

2008 Vintage Futures - Winestate Magazine 5 Stars - 2010 McLaren Vale Regional tasting - 5 Stars Equal Top of Class, 2010 World's Greatest Shiraz Challenge 5 Selected for the Winestate Wine of The Year 2010 "Taste Off" - James Halliday 2011 Rating 91

2007 Vintage Futures - James Halliday 2010 Companion Rating 92 "Incredibly concentrated and very ripe, possibly pushing the envelope: prunes and chocolate, and unashamedly big in every respect off 70 year-old vines, to 2020". - Winestate Magazine 5 Stars and selected for the Shiraz Challenge Grand taste off - Winewise Small Vignerons Gold Medal - Winestate 2009 Annual "Best of Style" 5*

2006 Vintage Futures - James Halliday 2009 Companion Rating 87 "Plenty of flavour, but does struggle in vain under its load of alcohol, to 2013". Winestate Magazine 2 x 3 Stars, 1 x 4 Stars, - Winestate's International Shiraz Challenge III 4 1/2 Stars.

2005 Vintage Futures - James Halliday 2009 Companion Rating 94 "Classy strongly regional style: medium bodied black fruits and dark chocolate: quality French Oak and ripe tannins easily carry alcohol: 70 year old vines, to 2025". 2008 Wine Wise Small Vignerons Gold Medal Top of Class - Winestate Magazine 2 x 3 Stars, 1 x 4 Stars.
